

Bic Runga, Listen

Listen, this stands to reason short as a season in all you and i can be wrong, when you walk in to the room like a song this can be wrong.

Tender long as i living i promise you this evening and it's moving me along but the day i wait from you is too long much much to long,
much much too long,

and i guess i say it playing with one in the same oh yeah in the face of all that's change we'll stay the same oh yeah

Last time i was mistaken my face was shaken my heart was never strong, but the fear inside is already gone, its already gone

and i gess i say it playing with one in the same oh yeah, in the face of all that's change we'll stay the same oh yeah...

and i gess i say it staight with one in the same oh yeah the face of things that change we'll stay the same oh yeah...
