

Bif Naked, Moment Of Weakness

I stand in the pouring rain
You couldn't even be there to pick me up
Yer taking me for granted again
Yer running outa time, and yer outa luck!

Just a moment of weakness
I should examine my head!
Just a moment of weakness
I never meant a word I said!

I'm sick with the Beijing Flu
and you choose THEN not to come home.
A week later I caught you
kissing a girl who was my clone!

Just a moment of weakness
I should examine my head!
Just a moment of weakness
I never meant a word I said AYEAAAAAAAA I said

Oh, why should I stay and pretend?
you make me laugh again
My darling, truth is-we are not even friends!
Oh, love comes and it goes.
where yer heart stops-no one knows... how did I wind-up in the mess, here-with you!

Just a moment of weakness
I should examine my head!
Just a moment of weakness
I never meant a word I said!
just a moment of weakness
I should examine my head!
Just a moment of weakness
I never meant a word I said!

AYEAAAAAAAA not a word i said
not a word i said
NOT A WORD I SAID
i didnt mean a word of it.
