

Bif Naked, The Letter

can you remember chestnut street
and algae ripping at our feet?
i was just a little girl
and you were my whole world.

what i'd give to be lying in your arms,
what i'd give to be your girl again

did you know that you were my first love?
did you know it's you i still dream of?
i've grown up a lot since then my nostalgic heart will never mend.

what i'd give to be lying in your arms,
what i'd give to be your girl again
(what i'd give to be your girl again)
