

Biffy Clyro, Hero Management

Iron man, I return to you, to be the way you wanted
But I have no strength or the decency in me to be a hero
But we still fall down, yeah you'll still fall down

Iron man, I refuse to be the way that you would want me
Still I've got no strength but the sense in me to see I'm not a hero
But we still fall down, still fall down
And we'll still fall down, and we still fall

But we still fall down, and we still fall down
And you still fall down, yeah we still fall down
(I love you) Take it away, take it away, take it away, take it!
