

Big Brovaz, Lil' Mama

"Hey lil moma why dont
you ever smile?
I know life aint easy Bringing up a child, but yo Listen lil moma
Cause Im feeling your pain
I wonder if your baby daddy out there feeling the same
Where your friend at lil moma?
They got plans tonight at the club Wanna get themselves a man tonight
They done left you all alone, huh lil moma Under pressure on your own Dealing with the drama Can you turn to your family and ask for help Or would they turn you away Cause they got problems they self Lil moma gotta crib
But its hell there
No frills gotta live on the welfare
Oh lil moma tell me what I can do
To make you smile just one time
And your little one too
Lil moma just know
Some of us men are true
Lil moma, this ones for you Uh, lil moma
Chorus
Dont worry, youre stronger
Just hold on a little bit longer
Dont worry, youre stronger
Just hold on a little bit longer
Girl I know your man has left you
With a child on your own And you find it hard to cope with all the stress alone
And theres nowhere to run Cant have any fun Looking for someone to be there for you
All your hopes in love are gone
You dont have strength to believe Gonna take time but you will find that special one that you need But theres no need to rush, girl take your time And you will find the one that will be true
Chorus
Hey little mama why you so depressed?
I know you wondering how
babys last nappy wet You cant turn to family when you feel neglect And I bet you did a couple of things that you regret Theres always hope there never forget, all you gotter do is try harder
My mama made it on her own without my father Me and two brothers wonder how she did it Maybe its because she never gave up and stayed committed Barely 16 now gotta deal with this The pressure make you wanna slit your wrist but dont

The lord never gives you more than you can handle
If you keep your head up aint no telling what you can do Little Mama keep the faith, God will keep you safe Under his wing all you gotta do is turn to him
And in the end you wont regret a thing
Chorus
