

Big Brovaz, Little Mama

Hey lil' moma why don't you ever smile?
I know life ain't easy Bringing up a child, but yo Listen lil' moma
Cause I'm feeling your pain
I wonder if your baby daddy out there feeling the same Where your friend at lil' moma?
They got plans tonight at the club Wanna get themselves
a man tonight
They done left you all alone, huh lil' moma Under pressure on your own Dealing with the drama Can you turn to your family and ask for help
Or would they turn you away Cause they got problems they self Lil' moma gotta crib
But it's hell there
No frills gotta live on the welfare
Oh lil' moma tell me what I can do
To make you smile just one time
And your little one too
Lil' moma just know
Some of us men are true
Lil' moma, this ones for you
Uh, lil' moma
[Chorus]
Don't worry, you're stronger
Just hold on a little bit longer
Don't worry, you're stronger
Just hold on a little bit longer
Girl I know your man has left you
With a child on your own
And you find it hard to cope with all the stress alone
And there's nowhere to run Can't have any fun Looking for someone to be there for you
All your hopes in love are gone
You don't have strength to believe Gonna take time but you will find that special one that you need But there's no need to rush, girl take your time
And you will find the one that will be true
[Chorus]
Hey little mama why you so depressed?
I know you wondering how the hell you got in this mess
baby's last nappy wet
You can't turn to family
when you feel neglect
And I bet you did a couple of things that you regret There's always hope there never forget, all you gotter do is try harder
My mama made it on her own without my father Me and two brothers wonder how she did it Maybe its because she never gave up and stayed committed Barely 16 now gotta deal with this The pressure make you wanna slit your wrist but don't

The lord never gives you more than you can handle
If you keep your head up ain't no telling what you can do Little Mama keep the faith,
God will keep you safe Under his wing all you gotta do is turn to him
And in the end you won't regret a thing
[Chorus]
