

Big Business, Start Your Digging

How many people are needed to turn on this light
How many people, how many people
Everyone's crying, nobodies breathing
Too scared to listen to what they've been thinking
How many people are needed to turn on this light

Oh no, they ain't your baby, you just turn them away 'cause
We got no guarantees except for being cold
Oh no, they ain't your baby, you just turn them away 'cause

Have the wits, have the spite
Hopefully everything works out just fine
Grab the bottle it's not even wine
It's plentifully seasoned with evil, oh no

Grab a shovel and start your digging man
Grab a shovel and start your digging man
Only got six feet to go
