

Big D And The Kids Table, New England

[written by Johnathan Richman] well i've already been to Paris, i've already been to Rome but what did i do but miss my home oh new england

i went out west to Californ but i missed the land where i was born i can't help it

oh new england

i've seen old isreal's arab plains it's quite magnificent, but so is Maine

oh New England

[3rd verse by Big D]

now if you like Camden in North London we got that spirit here in Allston now many people ask "where you from?"
with a heartfelt smile i say "from Boston"
oh, New England