

Big Head Todd And The Monsters, Cashbox

You got love in the cashbox baby, now give it to me
You got diamonds on the dresser, bring em on here you see
Didn't your momma tell ya, it's better to give than to receive
I've been steeling your love. Bring it all night long.

Didn't I give you that golden necklace, what about that golden ring
I really do think you're precious but you don't trust me
Didn't your daddy tell ya, it's better to give than to receive,
I've been steeling your love. Bring it all night long.

You got something in the register baby, let's open that sucker up
Jewels on the nightstand, so luxurious
Didn't your brother tell ya, it's better to live than to be dust?
I've been steeling your love. Bring it all night long.
