

Big Sugar, Girl Watcher

(G. Johnson/P. Ballantyne)

Down time, feeling inclined
I don't mind, I don't mind, I don't mind
Haven't seen what I'm hoping to find
I don't mind, I don't mind, I don't mind
I'll stare until I start to go blind
I don't mind, I don't mind, I don't mind
She arrives right on time

She's fine, at least from behind
I don't mind, I don't mind, I don't mind
She says I'm wasting my time
I don't mind, I don't mind, I don't mind
One thing weighs on my mind

Who do you dream about, baby?
Who do you dream about?
Say me
Who do you dream about, baby
And who do you love?

One time, just one more time
I don't mind, I don't mind, I don't-

Who do you dream about, baby?
Who do you dream about?
Say me
Who do you dream about?
And who do you love?
