Big Tent Revival, Lovely Mausoleum

Breakdown out on the town What are you gonna do? No fun out on the run Where have you come to? You know, you built a lovely mausoleum For your soul Outside everything's bright Making it on your own Inside rotten and dried Nothin' but dead man's bones Ain't it a shame, all of the world's a game You can see everything circling down the drain Ain't it a shame, all you've been fashionin' Suddenly crashin' in Surely you know, you built a lovely mausoleum Sunrise open your eyes When are you gonna see? New day coming your way What is it gonna be? Your choice, your voice You are in control Jesus, Jesus He will make you whole Ain't it a shame, all of the world's a game You can see everything circling down the drain Ain't it a shame, all you've been fashionin' Suddenly crashin' in Surely you know, you built a lovely mausoleum You built a lovely mausoleum For your soul
