

Bigelf, Money, It's pure Evil

Nothing is good. It always turns bad.
Nothing is understood, there's nothing to understand.
You think that you're right, you're probably wrong.
There's no reason to fight, you can't get along.
With money! It's pure evil! It changes, changes people!
Everyone's false, and no one is real.
Null is the cause, to make a big deal.
Don't know who's your friends. Yeah, don't know who's your foes!
Oh, I hope this is the end now, you know I've got to let go,
Of money! It's pure evil! It changes, changes people!
Money! It's your best friend, until it leads you to bitter, end.
(Guitar solo)
Money! It's pure evil! It changes, well it changes people!
Yeah! Money, it's your best friend! Until it leads you, to bitter end.....
