

Bilal, You Are

I found you wearing satin
The shade of ebony
In the silence of my dreams
You kept me company
On this secluded island
Our bodies seem to melt
Intoxicating, Overwhelming Intensity

Chorus:

You're the one my hearts been waiting for
No less than everything and nothing more
Until the end of time I feel a dawn?

U baby u r all, u r all.

I sketch u 2 observe u, a smeared reality

Now u're draped in chocolate, tasty opportunity, to place u, take time to Rest u on some mantel piece, ignite u, take time to, and everything in between

Chorus

To me you read as clearly

It's like poetry-You've got me

With sexy smile, sexy frown, those frowns
(those frowns.....do what you do)
