

Bile, No I Don't Know

I can talk and talk and talk, you don't listen to what I say. I can scream one thousand screams, you stuck in a little world, a closed mind, your fate. The more and more you look at me, the more and more Things you do drive me up the wall, you do them to dig into me, hoping I will fall. Well I have some waste your time. I'm coming to a boil and vengeance will be mine. NO I DON'T NO! Feelings of love which one to take.
