Bile, No I Don't Know

I can talk and talk, you don't listen to what I say. I can scream one thousand screams, you stuck in a little world, a closed mind, your fate. The more and more you look at me, the more and n Things you do drive me up the wall, you do them to dig into me, hoping I will fall. Well I have some waste your time. I'm coming to a boil and vengeance will be mine. NO I DON'T NO! Feelings of lov which one to take.
