

Bile, Relix

Lost-lost-lost, finding nothing. Lost-lost-lost, finding nothing. Am I destined to reap what I have taken down, down, down. Cheat, lied, stole from your friends. Cheat, lied, stole from your friends. Cheat, Lost-lost-lost, finding nothing. Lost-lost-lost finding nothing. Not worth the dirt, not worth the dirt I step in. This is what you've made me, they're all out to get me. The others before me am. Sunny days and happy trails, blizzard baths and slicing rails. Coughing fit and untrue grit, pack revenge, never again, never again, can we be friends? I seek revenge, never again, never again, c am.
