

Bile, There Is No You And Me

What I'm gonna be, has nothing to do you see, with anything of you and me, there is no you and me to the limit, tried to take what I've got, watch me take away what I gave you, you'll see what you torments, think you're above all around, well how does it feel when I go up and you are dropping down nothing to do you see, with anything of you and me, there is no you and me. You pushed me passed Nothing that I want that I gave you, you were just a prop. Push aside your remnants, downplay your feel when I go up and you are dropping down..down.. down.. down... down.....What I'm gonna be, anything of you and me. THERE IS NO YOU AND ME.
