Bill Anderson, Did She Mention My Name

(Gordon Lightfoot)

It's so nice to meet an old friend And pass the time of day And talk about the hometown A million miles away.

Is the ice still on the river Are the old folks still the same And by the way Did she mention my name?

Did she mention my name just in passing? And when the morning came Do you remember if She cried a tear or two?

Is the homesteam still on fire Do they still win all their games And by the way Did she mention my name?

--- Instrumental ---

Is the landlord still a loser Do his signs hang in the hall Are the young girls still as pretty In the city in the fall?

Does the laughter on their faces Still put the sun to shame And by the way Did she mention my name?

Did she mention my name just in passing And when the talk ran high Aid the look in her eyes seem far away Won't you say hello for someone There'll be no need to explain And by the way Did she mention my name?

Oh, by the way Did she mention my name?...
