

Bill Anderson, Gotta Keep Moving

(Steve Karliski)

Sometimes I get restless, Lord
I hate to go home
Tired of livin' with someone
And afraid of livin' alone.

What an urge to be free now
But I'm so used to my chains
I don't know what I want, Lord
I just want my life to change.

And I don't want to stay
In the comfort of my empty yesterdays
If I can't find some peace of mind
I gotta keep moving gotta keep moving.

Yes, I spoke of loving
But that's all I meant to say
Didn't mean forever
No more than I meant a day.

I was talkin' about feelings, girl
Not possession of my soul
But you want something more, babe
You want someone you can hold.

And I don't want to stay
In the comfort of my empty yesterdays
If I can't find some peace of mind
I gotta keep moving gotta keep moving.

Gotta keep moving.
Gotta keep moving...
