

Bill Anderson, Honey Come Back

(Jim Webb)

Well honey, I know I've said it too many times before
I said I'd never say it again
I guess I shouldn't say anything at all
Since you're supposed to belong to him
But I just can't let you go
Without tellin' you just how much I love you
So that is why I'm gonna say it one more time.

Honey, come back I just can't stand it
Each lonely day's a little bit longer
And the last time I held you
Seems like a hundred years ago
Back to his arms and never know
The joy of love that used to taste like
Honey, come back where you belong to only me.

Well, I guess that's about all I've got to say
I'm just gonna take my bags now I'm gonna walk
I know those bright lights're callin' you
Honey, big fine cars and fancy clothes
But if you ever want somebody to just love you
And some day you just may you just give me a call
You know where I am and here's what I'll say.

Honey come back I just can't stand it
Each lonely day's a little bit longer
And the last time I held you
Seems like a hundred years ago
Back to his arms and never know
The joy of love that used to taste like
Honey, come back where you belong to only me.

Honey come back where you belong to only me...
