Bill Anderson, Honey Come Back

(Jim Webb)

Well honey, I know I've said it too many times before I said I'd never say it again I guess I shouldn't say anything at all Since you're supposed to belong to him But I just can't let you go Without tellin' you just how much I love you So that is why I'm gonna say it one more time.

Honey, come back I just can't stand it
Each lonely day's a little bit longer
And the last time I held you
Seems like a hundred years ago
Back to his arms and never know
The joy of love that used to taste like
Honey, come back where you belong to only me.

Well, I guess that's about all I've got to say I'm just gonna take my bags now I'm gonna walk I know those bright lights're callin' you Honey, big fine cars and fancy clothes But if you ever want somebody to just love you And some day you just may you just give me a call You know where I am and here's what I'll say.

Honey come back I just can't stand it Each lonely day's a little bit longer And the last time I held you Seems like a hundred years ago Back to his arms and never know The joy of love that used to taste like Honey, come back where you belong to only me.

Honey come back where you belong to only me...
