

Bill Anderson, Lovin' Pains

(Ned Miller)

Lovin' pains wrapped around me
Like a chain
I will never be the same
Because of lovin' pains.

I have fallen in love in the sunshine
Fallen in love in the rain
Love can burn but I'll never learn
I'm falling in love again.

Lovin' pains wrapped around me
Like a chain
I will never be the same
Because of lovin' pains.

Well, I looked in her eyes and saw
A promise her sweet lips whispered my name
She leaned in close and gave me one last kiss
And left on the midnight train.

Lovin' pains wrapped around me
Like a chain
I will never be the same
Because of lovin' pains.

--- Instrumental ---

Yes, I have fallen in love in the sunshine
Fallen in love in the rain
Love can burn but I'll never learn
I'm falling in love again.

Lovin' pains wrapped around me
Like a chain
I will never be the same
Because of lovin' pains...
