Bill Anderson, Lovin' Pains

(Ned Miller)

Lovin' pains wrapped around me Like a chain I will never be the same Because of lovin' pains.

I have fallen in love in the sunshine Fallen in love in the rain Love can burn but I'll never learn I'm falling in love again.

Lovin' pains wrapped around me Like a chain I will never be the same Because of lovin' pains.

Well, I looked in her eyes and saw A promise her sweet lips whispered my name She leaned in close and gave me one last kiss And left on the midnight train.

Lovin' pains wrapped around me Like a chain I will never be the same Because of lovin' pains.

--- Instrumental ---

Yes, I have fallen in love in the sunshine Fallen in love in the rain Love can burn but I'll never learn I'm falling in love again.

Lovin' pains wrapped around me Like a chain I will never be the same Because of lovin' pains...
