

Bill Anderson, Number One

(Jerry Chesnut)

I don't wanna see no lips
Of all the lips you've ever kissed
I just wanna be your No. 1
I don't need no one to warm me
I don't care who came before me
I just wanna be your No. 1.

All that happened yesterday
Is now a part of history
Let me be your destiny
Let's do what's right for you and me.

I don't wanna try and undo
All the wrong somebody done you
I just wanna be your No. 1.

--- Instrumental ---

My whole world revolves around you
Life began the day I found you
I just wanna be your No. 1
Let's not spend no time discussin'
Anything that don't mean nothin'
I just wanna be your No. 1.

Take me in your arms
Turn out the light lock the door
And I won't even wonder
Of somebody had a key before.

I don't wanna solve no mist'ry
Yesterday belongs to hist'ry
I just wanna be your No. 1, No. 1
I just wanna be your No. 1.

I just wanna be your No. 1
I just wanna be your No. 1...
