

Bill Monroe & His Bluegrass Boys, I'm Going Back

When I left old Kentucky
Linda kissed me and she cried
I told her that I would not wander &#039;d be back by and by

&#039;m going back to old Kentucky
There to see my Linda Lou
&#039;m going back to old Kentucky
Where the skies are always blue

Linda Lou she is a beauty those pretty brown eyes I loved so well
&#039;m going back to old Kentucky
Never more to say farewell

* Refrain

Linda Lou you know I love you
I long for you each night and day
When the roses bloom in old Kentucky
&#039;ll be coming back to stay

* Refrain
