Bill Monroe & His Bluegrass Boys, I'm Going Bac

When I left old Kentucky Linda kissed me and she cried I told her that I would not wander I'd be back by and by

I'm going back to old Kentucky There tro see my Linda Lou I'm going back to old Kentucky Where the skies are always blue

Linda Lou she is a beauty those pretty brown eyes I loved so well I'm going back to old Kentucky Never more to say farewell

* Refrain

Linda Lou you know I love you I long for you each night and day When the roses bloom in old Kentucky I'II be coming back to stay

* Refrain
