

Bill Monroe & His Bluegrass Boys, Six White Horses

I'm leavin' you to worry you off my mind
Lord I'm leavin' you to worry you off my mind
Cause you keep me worried troubled
Troubled all the time

Ah, six white houses going two by two
Ah, six white houses going two by two
That some other woman
Has took my love from you

Ah, the train I'm ridin' is sixteen coaches long
Ah, the train I'm ridin' is sixteen coaches long
That woman I'm lovin'
She's got another man and gone

If you don't believe I'm leavin' just count the days I'm
If you don't believe I'm leavin' just count the days I'm
Next time you see your daddy
It'll be on judgement morning

Ah, tell me pretty woman which way the river runs
Ah, tell me pretty woman which way the river runs
It runs from by back door
To the set of the rising sun