Billie, Girlfriend

I saw you jump up You and your friends, baby And I heard you say they're playing a jam (There's a jam right here baby) so waving you hand from side to side, sugar hear you're claiming you're a certified man (certified)

I know it might sound strange
But I pictured us alone
And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell - no
If my thoughts of you are true
Then I wanna get with you
So I'll step in while I'm given the chance yeah

Do you had a girlfriend? Do you have a girlfriend? You're looking real cool You're looking real cool Can I have your number? Can I have your number? You don't have a thing to lose. Do you have minute? Do you have a minute? What is on your mind? What is on your mind? I was just thinking I was just thinking We can spend some time

Heard a slow song
You don't waste time baby
And you asked me if I wanted to dance?
(sure I wanna dance) playing hard to get takes too long, sugar
so I told me friends that I found'a man (you're the one)

I know it might sound strange
But I pictured us alone
And you're kissing me in ways I can't tell-no
If my thoughts of you are true
Then I wanna get with you
So I'll step in while I'm given the chance

Do you have a girlfriend? Do you have a girlfriend? You're looking real cool You're looking real cool Can I have your number? Can I have your number? You don't have a thing to lose Do you have a minute? Do you have a minute? What is on your mind? What is on your mind? I was just thinking I was just thinking We can spend some time

If my thoughts of you are true
Then I wanna get with you

So I'll step in while I'm given the chance
Do you have a girlfriend? Do you have a girlfriend?
You're looking real cool You're looking real cool
Can I have your number? Can I have you number?
You don't have a thing to lose
Do you have a minute? Do you have a minute?
