

Billie Holiday, Hello my darling

I'll forget your tender kiss
I'll be brave after this kiss
I'll say "Hello my darling"
If we should meet again
You'll forbid the tears to slip
You'll behave, bite your lip
And say "Hello my darling"
If we should meet again
If we do meet again
Our moments can't be sweet again
Oh my love, go my love
Though it's a bitter pill, I know my love
Please remember not to sigh
Over this last goodbye
Just say "Hello my darling"
If we should meet again
