

Billie Holiday, MY FIRST IMPRESSION OF YOU

Charlie Tobias / Sam H. Stept
My first impression of you
Was like the sight of flowers in spring
You were a glorious thing to see
My first impression of you
Was something indescribably new
I stood there looking at you
Smiling at me
If you had stepped right out of heaven
It wouldn't surprise me more
I thought you were an angel
From heaven's door
It may sound silly, but true
My heart just stopped
When I caught your eye
So overwhelming
Was my first impression of you
