

Billie Holiday, SUN SHOWERS

Arthur Freed / Nacio Herb Brown

Sun showers

Never mind the rain

The sun will shine again

Through sun showers

In a little while

The sky above will smile

Like luster that follows your kiss

Dark clouds of sorrow

Will soon be a sunny tomorrow

While sun flowers

Raise their happy eyes

Up to the flaming skies

Then sun showers

Leave us as they follow

Rainbows in our hearts

The gray skies soon will clear

My dear

While sun showers are here
