

Billie Holiday, YOU BETTER GO NOW

Irvin Graham / S. Bickley Reichner

You better go now

Because I like you much, too much

You have a way with you

You ought to know now

Just why I like you very much

The night was gay with you

There's the moon above

And it gives my heart a lot of swing

In your eyes there's love

And the way I feel it must be spring

I want you so now

You have lips I love to touch

You better go now

You better go, 'cause I like you much, too much
