

Billie Myers, The Shark & The Mermaid

Without a moments hesitation

They threw caution to the wind.

He though, she must be blind not to see

He was no prince charming, no beauty.

She held flowers at her fingertips,

And honey fell from her lips,

He dived, into the oceans wild

As she swam in the morning mist...

He said, if it's mine it will be, always yours.

Cast away any doubt and open up those

Doors... it was the

Shark and the mermaid
making love again

It was the shark and the mermaid falling in love again
It was the shark and the mermaid proving everybody wrong
It was the shark and the mermaid and the emrmaid

As they grow in mind and body,

And the days turned into years.

He thoughtm one day she might go away,

But her love overshadowed his fears.

Under the liquid sky,

Where they lived they were legends to Behold.

Fate distracted by their simple charms,

Left them there to love alone.

Now the angels wait patiently,

For the shadows down below, they stop and Smile because...

It's the shark and the mermaid

Nobody thought that the love would last

Everybody looked and everybody laughed

But the mermaid and the shark they just

Slipped away

Nothing stopped them no one got in their

Way

Standing together as lovers and friends.

They stayed together their love knew no

End,

Proving everyone wrong, they grew together

They were strong.

Everybody was wrong.

About the...

Shark and the mermaid