

Billy Bob Thornton, Angelina lyrics

I walked into an elevator
And you walked into the wall
You said you wanted to be with me
I never dreamed id have it all
But something changed that day inside me
And I believe the change is inside you too.
Angelina can you feel it
Watching angels as their dancing up above
Angelina whats come between us?
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love?
They all said wed never make
Two crazy panthers on the prowl
They all said we would only fake it (for a while)
We just stared at them and growled
You were masked in tiny cuts and weary
But I said that ok you can be a girl.
Yeah Angelina can you feel it
Watching angels as their dancing up above
Oh Angelina whats come between us
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love.
This aint no chance were taking
Its a real love that were making
Blindfolds off and their you see yeah we see
Yeah Angelina
Oh Angelina watching angels as their dancing up above
oh Angelina whats come between us
could it be the magic and the mystery of love could it be the magic and the mystery of ....
Angelina
