

Billy Burnette, Always Wondering Bout You Babe

Written by billy burnette.

I'm always wondering about you, babe
Bout all the times you've walked away
And I'll always miss you when you go
Cause the way I feel well you just don't know

Let's head on down the road together
Where the air I'd clean and there's love and sunny weather
We'll hide away in our fields of green by a winding stream
In our world of make believe

It's just that look that's in your eyes
Something about you I idealize
I feel as though I'm bout to lose my mind
Just trying to catch up but I'm so far behind

Although sometimes it seems so very hard
For someone like you and me
While I'm not knowing which way you are You're too hung up in society
I'm not the way you want me to be
So I'll leave your way of living quietly
And forget all those things I can't give you-babe
