

Billy Corgan, Mina Loy (M.O.H.)

The siren calls outside they want to kill us all innocents, wounded souls full of rage
nowhere to go consequences be they may
I resolve to never change I so vow to never yield can I give my old heart TO YOU?

can I give my old heart TO YOU?
cause when this feeling starts thats when I blow it all away here, youre born theyll say: to die afraid, to lie awake its plain the wars have won the days of judgement rise for innocents, wounded souls how could they know?

theyre burning cold paranoias be they may
I resolve to never change

can I give my old heart TO YOU?
can I give my old heart TO YOU?
can I give my old heart TO YOU?
cause when this feeling starts thats when I rip it all apart alright!

the ends
in sight
were born
to die
one thousand times

Im just one wish away
Im just one wish away from you kid
Im just one wish away from you kid
Im not so innocent Im not so innocent now kid

can I give my old heart TO YOU?
can I give my old heart TO YOU?
my old heart
my old heart
my old heart
