

Billy Currington, Little Bit Lonely

Well, I parked my car in the driveway
Somewhere around 1 am
Worn out from the road with a big heavy load
On my mind, what a week it had been
Then I stumbled into the kitchen
And I saw that little red light
Blinkin' at me from my message machine
Then I knew it would be alright
'Cause she said

&quot;Baby, come over tonight
I'm a little bit lonely
Baby, come hold me tonight
I'm a little bit lonely&quot;

Now it didn't take me a second 'til I knew
The right thing to do
I picked up the phone and said &quot;Baby I'm home
I'll be there in a minute or two.&quot;
I stole some of my neighbor's daisies
Grabbed an old bottle of wine
She don't call me much but I know when she does
That I'm in for one helluva time
When she says,

&quot;Baby, come over tonight
I'm a little bit lonely
Baby, come hold me tonight
I'm a little bit lonely&quot;
Baby, baby, baby just for tonight
Be my one and only
Baby, come over tonight
I'm a little bit lonely

Yeah everybody needs a little love sometimes
Yeah, who am I to leave you hangin' high and dry
No baby, not tonight
No, no, no, no
Not tonight, now baby

&quot;Baby, come over tonight
I'm a little bit lonely
Baby, come hold me tonight
I'm a little bit lonely&quot;
Baby, baby just come hold me tight
You don't have to call me
Baby, baby, baby come over tonight
I'm a little bit lonely
I'm lonely, lonely, lonely
So come on baby
Said, &quot;I'll be there in a minute or two.&quot;
And I brought those daisies and that red wine
We had one hell of a time
Yeah, yeah, yeah
