

Billy Falcon, Love Birds

yesterday, I saw two love birds on a limb.
They were way out on a limb.
The sky was gray, It didn't seem to worry her,
didn't worry him.
such an awesome sight to see,
just how fearless love could be.
Two love Birds, way out on a limb, way out on a limb
he lay down his life for her, she'd do anything for him
two love birds--
I watch the sun go down and the night forgive the day,
if we could be that way.
That's my prayer for you and me to live so gracefully.
Way out on a limb.
