

Billy Gilman, I'm Not Me Anymore

Is this my bed
What's goin' on in my head
I feel so different today
I have this image of you
My freedom, my courage, the strength I never knew
I found the answer through you
Discovered the glory of living through you
You taught me so much
Your words lift me up

(Chorus)
I'm not me anymore
I'm all of us and a part of you
I'm not me anymore
I'm here for you
With every beat of my heart
I come closer to you

I have this vision of you
My kindness, my faith
I attribute to you
I share my secrets with you
You taught me forgiveness with all that you do
To have someone you trust can change you so much

(Chorus)
I'm not me anymore
I'm all of us and a part of you
I'm not me anymore
I'm here for you
With every beat of my heart
I come closer to you

Closer than
I've ever been to knowing you love never ends
And even when my heart is aching
Knowing that you'll take me in
And love me again

(Chorus)(x2)
I'm not me anymore
I'm all of us and a part of you
I'm not me anymore
Well, I'm here for you
With every beat of my heart
I come closer to you
