

Billy Gilman, Possession

One of my greatest fear is "It"
I can't touch it, but I can feel it
It does not have a taste or smell,
But I can hear it in my spirit.

Chorus:
It is deep inside of me,
It makes me fear my memory
One day I'll live peacefully,
Without the fear of "It";

It is something I can't see
But it can never possess me
It is something I can't see
It always tries to take control,
I can defeat it if I believe it.

It keeps running through my mind,
I have to fight it time and time
And time and time and time
And time again...

The more I understand about it
The less my world revolves around it
Then I can just live out my life
Without the fear of "It";.
