Billy Idol, Buried Alive

It's the season of the dark horse
The ocean of night
It's the angel of mercy
Leaving you behind
In this moment
You ache for the cure
You're pleading
Save me
Give me some more

There's no shelter tonight Escape from the pain There is nothing No end to this game

You're so wicked Evil and cruel It won't save you Save me From what I'm gonna do

You're just a number You're just a victim A dead man walking Buried alive

Hold out for a better hand Wait for better days You can feel it coming The fury of my rage My vengeance Will rain down on you There's no mercy Have mercy In what I'm gonna do
