

Billy Idol, Too Personal

You're to to to too personal
You're to to to too personal

Well you keep talking about love -
Well what do you want
We have fun alright - so what do you want
The idea of fate it's all in the mind
We are the ones who control our own time

Look don't get me wrong
But if you keep on I'm gonna go

You're to to to too personal
You're to to to too personal

You say everyone's lonely and insecure

All because of living in hate and fear
Well if love is possession baby you better change
No one's gonna keep me in those chains

Look don't get me wrong
But if you keep on I'm gonna go

Forget your personal problems
Think about somebody else
I'm gonna think about them - right now

You're to to to too personal
You're to to to too personal
You're to to to too personal
You're to to to too personal
