

Billy Joel, Let Your Heart Show You The Way

Have you ever had that dream?
Where you're all alone in the dark and so afraid.
And then an angel comes to you and says
Let your heart show you the way.
It'll lead you to glory every single day,
Don't stop to wonder why.
Get up and wipe your eyes.
I promise, we'll get through this
You may not have the best toys
You may not have the coolest clothes
But deep down you know,
There are people far worse off
And if we all helped the world it would be a better place
For all of us...For all of us=
Let your heart show you the way.
It'll lead you to glory every single day,
Don't stop to wonder why.
Get up and wipe your eyes.
I promise, we'll get through this(reapete)
