

Billy Preston & Syreeta, With You I'm Born Again

Come bring me your softness,
comfort me through all this madness.
Woman don't you know,
with you I'm born again.

Come give me your sweetness,
now theres you there is no weakness.
Lying safe within your arms,
I'm born again.

I must have not hope,
instead with none,
reaching through this world,
in need of one.

Come show me your kindness,
in your arms i know Ill find this.

Woman dont you know,
with you I'm born again.

Lying safe with you im warm again.

Come bring me your softness,
comfort me through all this madness.
Woman don't you know,
with you I'm born again.

Come give me your sweetness,
now theres you there is no weakness.
Lying safe within your arms
I'm born again.
