

Billy Ray Cyrus, Back to Tennessee

Fancy cars and diamond rings
I've seen all kind of shiny things
I should be feeling alive again
But Lord I dont
Creepy town so full of users
Make a million still a loser
??
Living a wild
Aint no mercy being free
When it brings you to your knees
Cant keep lying
I see the road now
I know just what I need
To find my way back to tennessee
Im going home now
To southern theyre so sweet
And find my way back to tennessee
I was only seventeen
I left behind my beauty queen
I turned my back on everything and everyone
Rooms with lots of pretty faces
They are gone no
Now I know theres no comfort in this world
God I miss that hometown girl
Wanna hold her
Im on the road now
I know just what I need
To find my way back to tennessee
Im coming home now
To southern theyre so sweet
And find my way back to tennessee
Oh
All this time
I was chasing after dreams
It was right in front of me
I was lost without her
Im on the road now
I know just what I need
To find my way back to tennessee
Im coming home now
To southern theyre so sweet
And find my way back to you and me
Find my way back to tennessee
