

Billy Ray Cyrus, Somebody Said A Prayer

Just a single mom raisin up the kids

Little Tommy's seven now and her daughter Justine just turned ten

Pinchin every cent laughin and lovin and content

You would never think a couple years ago she almost let her job, her kids, her mind, her life go up right there on the edge right before the fall

Chorus:

Somebody said a prayer

Somebody had some faith somebody finally hit their knees and asked for help for heavens sake So

Somebody said a prayer

He was seventeen and his heart was broke

The middle of the night a bottle full of pills and a goodbye note

Sittin on his bed but then he bowed his head now I see him every week and every now and then he

Can I get an amen well there were tears on his face he said look what happened lord

Chorus:

Somebody said a prayer

Somebody had some faith somebody finally hit their knees and asked for help for heavens sake So

Somebody said a prayer 2x

Can I get an amen Ohhhhhhhh

Can I get an amen Ohhhhhhhhhh

Somebody somebody said a prayer somebody said a prayer somebody somebody said a prayer
