

Billy Talent, Bloody Nails and Broken Hearts

Lay down, lay down with your drunken fools,
I never thought you could be so cruel,
And all the rumours I heard were true,
You had another man in our room,
Peel off the bandages from the wounds,
I still have plenty of scars to prove,
I'm sick of covering up the truth,
So now I'm taking it back from you!
From the start, drew a target on my heart,
So you can throw your poison darts,
You'll never kill, never kill.
You left a trail right from the start,
Of bloody nails and broken hearts,
And you keep tearing them apart,
With bloody nails and broken hearts.
Now I know fairy tales don't come true,
And Cinderella don't fit this shoe,
Some day I'll get back the love I gave,
Some day you'll pay for this mess you made!
From the start, drew a target on my heart,
So you can throw your poison darts,
You'll never kill, never kill? never kill
You left a trail right from the start,
Of bloody nails and broken hearts,
And you keep tearing them apart,
With bloody nails and broken hearts.
Of bloody nails and broken hearts,
And I bet you thought I'd miss your bitter kiss!
Your bitter kiss,
Your bitter kiss,
I'll never miss
So now I'm taking it back from you,
(So now I'm taking it back from you)
Yeah now I'm taking it back from you.
You left a trail right from the start,
Of bloody nails and broken hearts,
And you keep tearing them apart,
With bloody nails and broken hearts.
You left a trail right from the start,
Of bloody nails and broken hearts,
And I bet you thought I'd miss your bitter kiss!
