

Billy Walker, Give Back My Heart

Give back my heart for our love is over
The love I gave you was a love that was true not a lie
Give back my heart female Casanova
You made the game of our love a plaything of our love so goodbye
But I still love you though and I'll miss you I know that's for certain
But it's no life to live with all you do is give and get back in return all this hurtin'
Go your way it's best that we're apart
Find yourself a new love I'll find me a true love give back my heart
