

Billy Walker, I Call It Heaven

[duet with Ray Price]

They call me a fool and say it won't last

That you'll break my heart like the ones in your past

They're calling you wild you'll never be true but I call it heaven just being with you

Perhaps I should listen perhaps I'm not smart

But I take my chances and follow my heart

They call this a game you'll leave me some day but I call it heaven don't take it away

[steel]

Perhaps I should listen...
