

Billy Walker, Pretend You Just Don't Know Me

The next time that you see me please don't even speak
I don't even want you walkin' down the same side of the street
That's what she said the day she left and walked away from me
Pretend you just don't know me if we ever chance to meet
But she knows I couldn't cause she takes along my heart
And if we ever meet again I'll beg for another start
I didn't mean to cheat on her but I cheated just the same
To pretend I just don't know her if I'm forgetting my own name
[ steel ]
That's what she said...
